

F E B R U A R Y 2 0 1 9

The WAVE e-news

Photo by Stephanie Sutton

Julia Penny's show based on her book with a series of immigrant portraits called From All Walks of Life runs at the Gwen Fox Gallery until the end of February.

Also recently published is Amanda Onchulenko, with the recent launch of her book WISDOM at the CROSSROADS.

Consider this "a picture book for adults, or yoga for the mind, with its simple premise to look within, to seek and know our own hearts."

Pick up your copy at
McNally Robinson Booksellers

We are well into a new year and the annual shortest month is almost done. February is what we call heART month, when love is in the air! Whether you love yourself, or someone you're with, we hope you will continue to love WAVE artists and their art.

The June WAVE Artists' Studio Tour is just over 100 days away so you know there are many studios beginning to spring forth with creative vibes. In our December newsletter we reminded you to take a few minutes to share your opinions on the patron's survey and we'd like to thank those of you who were able to do so. Your feedback is always greatly appreciated. We hope you enjoy the tidbits of the most recent news on the artists and their events.

LOVE AT THE WAVE Each year during the Fall WAVE, interesting visitors (former and new) drop in for a visit at the Blue Door Studio, # 36 A & B on the studio tour. Last year, one of our long-term visitors shared their heartfelt story. They shared that they try to visit regularly to celebrate the anniversary of their relationship. Why? Because I happened to insist that they were a very cute couple and I had assumed they were in a long-term relationship. Well, in truth, during that first visit to my studio, they were just friends. Apparently, my enthusiastic assumptions led them into a serious discussion about their happy friendship. Several years later, they now visit as husband and wife along with their two beautiful children. Now, how special is that? - Marlene Van Helden, at the Blue Door Art Studio – where memories are made!

Marlene's story has got us wondering if any of other visitors have interesting stories to share with us. If you do, we would love to hear from you. Drop us a line or two at waveartiststour@gmail.com

MARK YOUR CALENDARS ▶ ▶ ▶

July 26 & 27, 2019

It's early notification but we're excited to let you know that once again at least a dozen WAVE artists will be participating in a pop up art show this year during the Gimli Film Festival this coming July! More details to follow in the next few months.

Clay artist Alan Lacovetsky @ Studio 2 (far left image) is looking forward to showing you his new kiln this year!

Ceramic artist and sculptor, Evelin Richter introduces play and expressive exploration of the curious at Studio 13

Looking for just the right fun and creative event? We can help ▶ ▶ ▶

Facebook

Instagram

Twitter

Pinterest